Meeting Date: Monday, September 10, 2018

Time: 10 am to 12 pm

Location: PV Library, Large Room

Call to Order: Lisa Johnson Cook, President

Agenda Item 1:

Guest Speaker: Beth Sweeny
Director of Foundation and Government Relations
Flagler College

Beth Sweeny recently joined Flagler College as the Director of Foundation and Government Relations in the Office of Institutional Advancement. Beth joined the College after spending seven years as the Coordinator for Governmental Relations and the Director for Policy and Governmental Relations for the St. Johns County School District. She has extensive experience with governmental relations with the School District and the federal, state and local government. She has written numerous position papers and monitored the implementation of new statutes and programs. She facilitated the community education, communication resources, and technical components of the school district's efforts to pass the half-cent sales tax.

Prior to working for the St. Johns County School District, she was a Legislative Aide to Senator Ronda Storms from 2006-2011.

Beth is a 2005 graduate of Flagler College with a B.A. in Political Science.

Ms. Sweeny will present an overview of the Proposed Constitutional Amendments and Revisions for the 2018 General Election. After her presentation, she will open the floor to general questions from the audience.

You can view the Proposed Amendments and the May 2018 Final report on www.dos.myFlorida.com.
